DYNAMIC DEVELOPMENT SINCE EU ACCESSION IN THE CEE MEMBER STATES

VIG markets CZ, EE, HU, LV, LT, PL, SK, SL are becoming EU members as of 1 May 2004

Major developments and future growth drivers

- Within 20 years, GDP per capita grew from as low as 30% of Western European levels to over 70%
- CEE is well-positioned to capitalise on the nearshoring trend – EU to strengthen EU-centric value chains especially in critical/strategic sectors
- Digital transformation is particularly dynamic in the CEE region
- Green transition is seen both as an opportunity and a challenge for the CEE region given its current substantial reliance on non-renewable energy
- EU-CEE education spendings increased, creating a well-educated and price-competitive labour force; promotion of skill development boosts productivity and improves the position of the EU-CEE markets in the global value chains

SOLID MACROECONOMIC OUTLOOK FOR CEE

Central and Eastern Europe recovery remains on track despite downward drag from Germany

Strong private consumption driving growth in the CEE region in 2025-2026

- GDP growth for the EU members in the region is forecasted at average of 2.2%, rising to 2.9% in 2025 – significantly outperforming the stagnant euro area (0.6%), and still growing next year twice as fast as the euro area (1.4%)
 - Poland (3.1%) and Croatia (3.3%) are growing particularly strong in 2024, with Poland expected to lead in 2025-2026 (respectively 3.7% and 3.3%)
 - Export growth is weak, impacted by subdued demand from Germany; but foreign direct investment inflows (especially in the Western Balkans) are supporting export capacity, partly due to nearshoring trends
- Inflation in most of VIG markets has slowed significantly, allowing for real wage growth and prompting central banks to cut interest rates
- Domestic demand remains strong and is driving the growth on the back of rising real wages, increased investment, and falling inflation
